8. Any Other Business

- a. Alan reported that Haywards Heath had a new car park paid for in part by a grant from Mid Sussex Council.
- b. Tony Smith had asked Paul why they were being asked for approval for junior festivals. David advised he would find out relevant RFU regulation.
- c. Paul asked why clubs were required to pay for international tickets so far in advance.
- d. Bill advised that Barns Green have had to pull their second team out of the league but will play friendlies. Players wanted to play without the pressures and training requirements of league rugby. There was discussion on leagues which could be future agenda item. It was agreed that the future of Sussex League rugby would be a suitable item for discussion at the CB clubs forum.
